A document dealing with the price of oil in western Europe prepared by a branch of the United Nations states that the oil industry on that continent is subject to a wide network of cartel practices, and that the United States oil prices are the keystone of the world structure. The document states that the price paid for oil by western Europe in the Middle East is tied to that of the United States and if this link were severed the price of oil to European consumers could be significantly lowered.

To encourage population growth, in the early days of French Canada a father was subject to a fine if he had a son unmarried at age twenty or a daughter unaid at age sixteen.

Grade A hogs. The difference in market value between a Grade A and a Grade C 200 pound live-weight hog is $6.50. On this basis, assuming the farmer marketed 500 hogs the increase in his income would be $227.50 for raising Grade A rather than Grade C hogs. The cost of raising a Grade A and a Grade C hog is the same.

Mr. W. N. Pidbruchey, the District Agricultural Agent for the area, cooperates very closely with the Shipboard Hog Raising Association. His advice is sought regularly concerning management and production problems which may arise at any time.

THE ANGUS L. MACDONALD BRIDGE which connects Halifax with Dartmouth, spanning Halifax Harbor, is the second largest suspension bridge in the British Commonwealth. Built by Dominion Bridge Co., Montreal, who also constructed the only bridge span in the Commonwealth, Lions Gate Bridge in Vancouver, the new 6,418-foot structure contains 8,277 tons of steel. There is enough wire in the two main, 12½-inch cables to reach from Quebec to Vancouver, and each tower is equal in height to a 12-storey building. The bridge has a 27-foot roadway and five-foot sidewalks, cost approximately $10,750,000, and was to be formally opened April 2.

HAZARD TO NAVIGATION—A "trap" at the helm has imperiled many a ship, but this is perhaps the first time that the ship has posed a hazard to a ship. The 40-year-old Labrador, making a 9,000-foot overland journey from Lake Champlain to the Maritime Museum, is accompanied by Captain Danby Walker, who is making the rounds of his own tank with the 400-cub-foot rig. Maple sap running free means "spring thaw" and spring thaw means that the last of the Lake Champlain icebreakers may hang up on a mud bank before she can complete the journey to her final berth on the museum's grounds.

EASTER TOPPER—Rarely has the Easter Parade been such a cry-digger of a topper as the one worn by Patricia Trussell LeCher in New York. The beauteous topper was fashioned of horse hair and feathers by Madame Kourina for Miss LeCher to wear in the New York City Ballet's production of "Western Symphony." Trussell likes the hat so much she'll wear it in the Easter Parade at Monte Carlo, where the troops will be dancing. The company leaves for Monte Carlo on April 1.

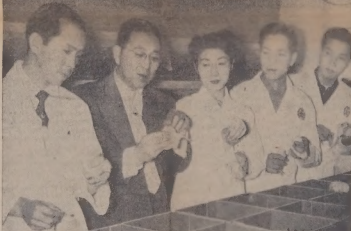

FATH, HOPE AND CHARITY (left to right), believed to be the oldest living triplets in the United States, whip up their 87th birthday cake in the kitchen of the Matthews, Mass., Country Club where they were invited to celebrate their birthday country. Baking a cake is an novelty for Ruth Macdonald, Hope Daniels and Charity Murphy as they had their own cake taking business from which they retired 15 years ago.

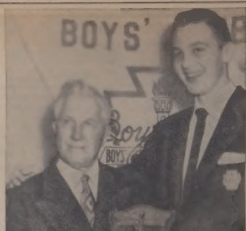

QUEEN'S OWN BOY SCOUTS—Boy Scouts Jerry Henry, 17, left, and brother Gerald, 16, sons of a U.S.A.F. meteorologist stationed in England, enjoy the unusual distinction of being made Queen's Scouts. They're receiving their badges from Rev. Douglas Eyles, vicar, at a ceremony in London. Brady Scout Jerry is believed to be the first American Boy Scout of his rank to be named a Queen's Scout.

END OF LANE—Penn and Cidie York, of Oil City, Pa., both caught serious injury when the car crashed into the Trinity Methodist church just before a sign showing hands clapped in prayer.

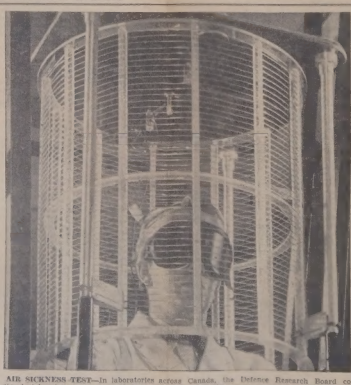

SEX OF ONE'S WORTH HALF DOZEN OF THE OTHER—And that's why chapmen extra can earn as much as $100 a day, according to George J. Galt, owner from left, president of the National Chamber of Commerce, who they're invited to celebrate their birthday country. Baking a cake is an novelty for Ruth Macdonald, Hope Daniels and Charity Murphy as they had their own cake taking business from which they retired 15 years ago.

BIG BOY, MAX-AGED AN AWARD—William P. McNulty, 11, Pittsburgh, Pa., high school senior, is presented with the 1941 Junior Achievement Award for his leadership, initiative and service to his school and community.

BEAUTY TUNED BY KAR—Heard-That's right, it's a "Heard" not just another radio. Created by New York City Miss Phyllis Young Tito, its designed with an ear in the middle of the hard-hearing women. As modeled by Carolyn Phillips, creating complete reference for the hearing aid, and just above carrying a radio ear unit of the device.

AIR SICKNESS TEST—In laboratory across Canada, the Defense Research Board conducted tests aimed at bringing aviators and women fit. This past-given stage surrounds an aircraft cockpit as a motion sickness machine, so he undergoes no air sickness test.

ROYAL APPEAL—British recently on a "Royal Appeal" when they saw the picture, apparently of their beloved Prince George, smiling at them from a children's book titled "Royal Prince" journal of the British Broadcasting Corporation. The child is actually Susan Marshall, a daughter of a member of U.S.A.F. personnel. Ad agency plans to train her with a boy who resembles Prince Charles in future eye-popping British promotion.

RYD'S DOG-WATCHING—Ben, Harry Frost, Sr., Virginia, Democrat who welcomes the Senate Finance Committee, had "Ryds" his constant companion, on the world situation. The five-year-old cocker spaniel has been with the master for two years, since he was an appropriate time on even a visitor.

An the robe wrapped in a piece of cloth is handy for mauling glue on stamps and envelopes.
